

Privacy Policy

This product is hereinafter referred to as "this APP". This statement applies only to this product. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please contact us at: clean.craft.fd@gmail.com

CL Tech Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "we" or "us"), as the operator of this application, fully recognizes the importance of your personal information and is committed to protecting its security and reliability. We strive to maintain your trust and adopt corresponding security protection measures in line with industry-standard security practices to safeguard your personal information.

Please read this Privacy Policy and its terms carefully and thoroughly before using this application and related services, especially the clauses regarding exemption or limitation of liability, as well as any separate agreements for activating or using specific services, and choose to accept or not accept them.

If you do not explicitly agree to this Privacy Policy and begin using the APP, we will only collect information essential for the operation of the application software. This may result in our inability to provide you with the complete product and services, but we will still apply measures such as de-identification and encryption to protect this information. We will provide you with corresponding services only after obtaining your explicit consent and acceptance. When you choose to continue or reuse the APP, it will be deemed that you accept and acknowledge our processing of your relevant information in accordance with this Policy, as necessary for providing the product and services. To offer you better service, we may update the terms of this Policy based on product updates and relevant legal requirements. Such updates constitute part of this Policy. When the privacy agreement changes after your use, we will notify you via push notifications or other means. If you continue to use our services, please carefully read the updated agreement. You have the right not to accept the modified agreement and should cease using the software or services provided by this APP.

If you violate any provision of this agreement, we have the right, at our sole discretion, to restrict, suspend, or terminate the provision of services to you based on the nature of the violation, and reserve the right to pursue your relevant liability.

If you are under 18 years of age, please read this agreement and the aforementioned agreements in the presence of a guardian, and obtain prior consent from your parent or legal guardian. If you are the guardian of a minor, please contact us using the contact method specified in this Privacy Policy if you have any questions regarding the personal information of the minor under your guardianship.

1. How We Collect and Use Personal Information

1.1 Personal Information We Collect

We collect information you actively provide while using our services, as well as information generated through automated means during your use of features or acceptance of services, in the following ways:

1.1 Product Security Features: To ensure the security of your account and our systems, we may need to obtain your hardware model, operating system version number, software version number, network access method, type, status, network quality data, operation logs, and service log information.

We store and process your personal information on Amazon Cloud servers. You can submit a data deletion request via 【Settings - Account】, and we will complete the cross-border data processing within 15 working days.

4.2 Storage Period

Generally, we retain your personal information only for the time necessary to fulfill the purposes, for example:

Account Information: We need to retain your account information for the duration of your use of this APP's services to ensure your normal use of the service. When you deactivate your APP account, we will delete or anonymize the corresponding information.

However, under the following circumstances, we may be required to change the retention period of personal information to comply with legal requirements:

- (1) To comply with applicable laws, regulations, and other relevant provisions;
- (2) To comply with court judgments, rulings, or other legal procedures;
- (3) To comply with requirements of relevant government authorities or legally authorized organizations;
- (4) We have reasonable grounds to believe it is necessary to comply with laws, regulations, and other relevant provisions;

4.3 In the event that our product or service ceases operation, we will notify you via methods such as push notifications or announcements and delete or anonymize your personal information within a reasonable period.

4.4 Handling of Personal Information Beyond Retention Period

We will retain your personal information only for the period necessary to achieve the purposes described in this Policy, unless an extended retention period is required or permitted by law. Once your personal information exceeds the retention period required by laws and regulations, we will delete or anonymize it. If we terminate a business or service, we will notify you at least fifteen days in advance and delete or anonymize your personal information after the termination of the business or service operation.

3. Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies

5. Cookies and similar technologies are commonly used technologies on the internet. When you use "this APP" software and related services, we may use relevant technologies to send one or more Cookies or anonymous identifiers to your device to collect and store information about your visit and use of this product. We use Cookies and similar technologies primarily to achieve the following functions or services:

- (1) To ensure the secure and efficient operation of the product and services.
- (2) We may set authentication and security Cookies or anonymous identifiers to confirm whether you have logged into the service securely or have encountered illegal activities such as theft or fraud. These technologies also help us improve service efficiency and enhance login and response speeds.

4. How We Share, Transfer, and Publicly Disclose Personal Information

6.1 Sharing of Personal Information

We will not share or transfer your personal information with other companies, organizations, or individuals, except in the following circumstances:

We may be required to share your personal information externally in accordance with legal and regulatory provisions or mandatory requirements from government authorities.

6.2 Transfer of Personal Information

We will not transfer your personal information to any company, organization, or individual, except in the following circumstances:

- (1) Transfer with explicit consent: After obtaining your explicit consent, we may transfer your personal information to other parties;
- (2) In the event of mergers, acquisitions, asset transfers, or bankruptcy liquidation, your personal information may be transferred. In such cases, we will continue to protect your personal information in accordance with laws and regulations and security standards no lower than those required by this Privacy Policy, or we will require the successor party to continue protecting it. Otherwise, we will require the successor party to obtain your authorization again.

6.3 Public Disclosure of Personal Information

We will publicly disclose your personal information only under the following circumstances:

- (1) After obtaining your explicit consent.

Normally, we do not publicly disclose the personal information we collect. When public disclosure is necessary, we will inform you in advance of the purpose of disclosure, the type of information to be disclosed, etc., and will publicly disclose the authorized information only after obtaining your explicit consent.

- (2) Sharing, transfer, or public disclosure of personal information exempted from consent according to law. Please understand that, in accordance with laws and regulations, national standards, legal procedures, litigation, or mandatory requirements from government authorities, we may share, transfer, or publicly disclose your personal information without obtaining your prior authorization.

5. How We Protect Personal Information Security

7. We strive to provide guarantees for the security of users' information to prevent loss, improper use, unauthorized access, or disclosure.

7.1 Not Collecting Irrelevant Personal Information

We will take all reasonably feasible measures to ensure that irrelevant personal information is not collected. We will retain your personal information only for the period necessary to achieve the purposes stated in this Policy, unless an extended retention period is required or permitted by law.

7.2 Reminding Users to Protect Personal Information

You acknowledge and understand that the systems and communication networks you use to access our services may encounter issues beyond our control. Therefore, we strongly recommend that you take proactive measures to protect the security of your personal information, including but not limited to not disclosing your account password and related personal information to others.

7.3 Regular Security Risk Assessment

We will regularly conduct security risk and personal information security impact assessments. You may consult or supervise us through the contact methods disclosed in this Policy.

7.4 Assuming Legal Liability for Accidental Leaks

The internet environment is not 100% secure. We will endeavor to ensure or guarantee the security of any information you send to us. If our physical, technical, or administrative safeguards are compromised, leading to unauthorized access, public disclosure, alteration, or destruction of information, and resulting in damage to your legitimate rights and interests, we will assume corresponding legal liability.

7.5 We hereby specifically remind you that the personal information protection measures provided in this Privacy Policy apply only to this APP and related services. Once you leave this APP and related services, browse, or use other websites, services, and content resources, we are neither capable of nor obligated to protect any personal information you submit in software or websites outside of this APP and related services, regardless of whether your login, browsing, or use of such software or websites is based on links or guidance from this APP.

6. Your Rights

8. We highly value your management of your personal information and are committed to protecting your rights to access, modify (update or correct), delete, and withdraw consent regarding your personal information, enabling you to safeguard your privacy and security.

8.1 Accessing Your Personal Information

You have the right to access your personal information, except as otherwise stipulated by laws and regulations. If you wish to access (or modify, delete) your personal profile information and password in your account or close your account, you can perform such operations by accessing your personal homepage or account management.

8.2 Correcting Your Personal Information

When you discover errors in the personal information we process about you, you have the right to request corrections.

8.3 Changing the Scope of Your Authorization

You can change or withdraw your authorization for the company to continue collecting personal information by deleting information, turning off device functions, changing privacy settings, etc.

Please understand that specific business functions and services require your information to be completed. After you withdraw your consent or authorization, the company will be unable to continue providing you with the functions and services corresponding to the withdrawn consent or authorization and will no longer process your corresponding personal information. However, your decision to withdraw consent or authorization will not affect the company's previous processing of personal information based on your authorization.

8.4 Account Deactivation by the Personal Information Subject

Account deactivation must meet the following conditions:

- (1) The account is in a normal state and is not subject to restrictions such as being disabled.
- (2) There are no unsettled account assets, and you agree to forfeit any unsettled virtual rights.

You can apply to deactivate your account by emailing us.

Before deactivating your account, we will verify your personal identity, security status, device information, etc. You acknowledge and understand that account deactivation is an irreversible action. After your account is deactivated, we will delete all information related to your account or anonymize such information, except as otherwise stipulated by laws and regulations.

8.5 Right to Be Informed of Service Cessation

If we cease operations, we will promptly stop collecting your personal information, notify you individually or via announcement of the cessation of operations, and delete or anonymize your personal information in our possession.

7. Minors Clause

9. If you are under 18 years of age, please read this Privacy Policy carefully and thoroughly in the presence of your guardian, and obtain your guardian's consent before using our services or providing information to us. We will collect, process, and protect your personal information in accordance with relevant legal provisions and our agreements with you. If you or your guardian believe that we have collected or used your personal information without authorization, please contact us using the contact method provided in this Privacy Policy. Upon verification, we will delete the relevant personal information as soon as possible. If we discover that we have collected personal information from a minor without obtaining verifiable parental consent, we will endeavor to delete the relevant information promptly.

If you are the guardian of a minor, please contact us using the contact method disclosed in this Privacy Policy if you have any questions regarding the personal information of the minor under your guardianship.

8. Scope of Application

10. This Privacy Policy applies to all services provided by CL Tech Co., Ltd. It does not apply to third-party advertisement products or other services that have separate privacy policies and are not covered by this Privacy Policy.

Your use of these third-party services (including any personal information you provide to these third parties) will be governed by the terms of service and privacy policies of these third parties (not this Privacy Policy). Please read the third-party terms carefully. Please protect your personal information and provide it to third parties only when necessary.

The specific features of this APP and related services described in this Privacy Policy may vary depending on your phone model, system version, software application version, and other factors.

9. How This Policy Is Updated

11. Our Privacy Policy may change. To provide you with better service, this APP and related services will be updated and changed from time to time, and we may revise this Privacy Policy accordingly. Such revisions constitute part of this Privacy Policy and have the same effect as this Privacy Policy. Without your explicit consent, we will not reduce your rights under the currently effective Privacy Policy.

10. Other Provisions

12.1 All notices under this agreement may be delivered via page reminders, email, SMS, or regular mail; such notices shall be deemed delivered on the date of sending.

12.2 The headings of all clauses in this agreement are for convenience of reading only and have no actual meaning; they cannot be used as a basis for interpreting the meaning of this agreement.

12.3 If any provision of this agreement is invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions shall remain valid and binding on both parties.

11. Contact Us
